The 2025 Madison County Coin Club Medal

The Madison County Coin Club of Huntsville, Alabama, is issuing a 2025 club medal. Daniel Carr, proprietor of the Moonlight Mint of Loveland, Colorado, will produce the piece. The main motifs mimic Bela Lyon Pratt's half eagle (gold $5) design, with additional obverse and reverse inscriptions around the rim that read MADISON COUNTY COIN CLUB / HUNTSVILLE ALABAMA and EDUCATION * PUBLIC SERVICE * FELLOWSHIP / FOUNDED 2001, respectively.

The medals will be available in silver for $100 and copper for $15. The silver has a mintage limit of 40 and the copper is 60. Please note that earlier, 20 silver and copper medals were reserved by club members as part of three-medal member only set, which contained an additional brass medal.

If you are interested in acquiring these medals, send an email to newsletter@mccc.anacclubs.org . All proceeds from the sale of the 2025 medals will go directly to the Madison County Coin Club. For more information about the club and this medal, visit the club's website. You do not have to be a member of the club to purchase a medal.
