	a collector tell if a coin is cleaned? What are the factors indicating that a coin's luster is NOT original? Veteran numismatist Tom Walker has the answers in this most informative presentation! Room N320E.
Noon	Raffle drawing at the Spider Press Exhibit. Table 1055
Noon	Exhibits are in place and exhibit judging may begin. Hall NB.
12:45-1:45 PM	Educational Seminar. "Lincoln Cents From 1909 to 1949: An In-Depth Analysis," by William T. Jones. The Lincoln series is one of the most popularly collected series of all time! Mr. William Jones, a copper coin specialist, will provide an expert analysis of the first 41 years of the Lincoln set. Topics such as grading and authentication will be included in this truly outstanding educational program. Room N320E.
1:45-2:45 PM	Educational Seminar. "The Dos and Don'ts of Successful Coin Collecting," by Col. Steve Howard. Mr. Howard, a retired U.S. Air Force colonel, has spent several decades as both a serious collector and a rare coin dealer. Last January, the audience sat spellbound as he described how he overcame some not-so-good experiences in his earlier collecting years. Today, he will expand on that program by giving specific "dos" and "don'ts" that are vital to a successful numismatic experience. It will put yet another smile on your face! Room N320E.
3:00-4:00 PM	Educational Seminar. "Errors 101," by John Zampedro. Many new collectors come to a coin show wondering if a coin they have in their collection is some kind of error. Error coin dealer John Zampedro, a full-time dealer since 1992, can answer those questions with authority. His program is focused on how error coins are made and what they may be worth. It's PERFECT for the new collector of errors or varieties! Room N320E.
4:00-5:00 PM	Educational Seminar. "Investing in Coins, Gold, and Silver," by Dennis Hoelzle. Mr. Hoelzle was educated at Michigan Tech University and Miami University of Ohio. He brings with him a commonsense approach to investing in coins and precious metals. This is a program loaded with positive investment information! Room N320E.
