SUMMER FUN 2018 EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Thursday, July 12

1:00 PM “Trade Up to Trade Dollars,” by Mark Trout. Mr. Trout, the president of the Ocala Coin Club, has spoken at several prior FUN conventions. This time he focuses on the under-publicized U.S. Trade dollar series, a series he believes is full of opportunities for both the collector and the investor.

2:30 PM “It’s Still a Jungle Out There,” by Skip Fazzari. I.C.G. grader-authenticator Skip Fazzari will present updated information on recently seen altered and counterfeit coins encountered at the grading service. Learn the diagnostics of these dangerous items from a true expert – Skip Fazzari!

Friday, July 13

1:00 PM “Standing Liberty Quarter Mythbusters,” by Ray Herz. Noted researcher Ray Herz explores some of the generally accepted myths that surround the ever-popular Standing Liberty quarter. What are these myths? And what is the truth? True expert Ray Herz has the answers!

2:30 PM “The Wise Collector: Five Collections You Should Start Building Right Now,” by Randy Campbell. FUN President Randy Campbell has 30 years’ experience as a full-time professional grader. Which five series does he like the best? And why does he like them? Find out in this information-filled presentation.

All speakers and topics are subject to change. These programs will be given in the Orange County Convention Center, Room W232C, outside of Hall WE1. They are all free and open to the public.
